Acceptable Sacrifices – Part 5: The Heart Matters

Matthew 5:23-24 (KJV): Matthew 5:23–24 (KJV): “Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.”

1 Corinthians 13:3 (KJV): “And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.”

The heart matters in our service and offerings to God. You cannot compensate for an unreconciled, hateful heart by increasing what you put on God's altar or the time you spend doing God's work.

Paul makes an extraordinary point: a person can give away everything and even make the ultimate bodily sacrifice, yet without love, it profits him nothing.

Our Father is a God of holiness and truth. Therefore, our sacrifices must be offered in sincerity and truth, not to impress people.

Acts 5:3–4 (KJV): “Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost... Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power?”

There was nothing wrong with Ananias keeping some of the proceeds. His sin was creating the impression that he had given everything. The problem was deception.

Beloved, God sees beyond the offering to the heart of the giver. Let us therefore give and serve Him in love, sincerity and truth.

May the Lord accept you and your sacrifices. Maranatha — Come, Lord Jesus.
